

WILSON VEXED OVER STORIES OF MONEY NEEDED

Democratic Candidate Desires to Confine Expenditures to a Reasonable Degree of Economy.

CALIFORNIANS IN BITTER SQUABBLE

Anti-Murphy Men Meet in New York; Women to Take Part in Campaign for New Jersey Governor.

SEA GIRT, Aug. 12.—Economy to the extreme, and the smallest campaign fund found in the history of any party, if possible, represent the wishes of Governor Woodrow Wilson for the coming campaign. Discussing reports that the Democratic party wanted to raise at least $2,000,000, Governor Wilson said: "It vexes me that it has been said that $2,000,000 has been fixed as the figure. I have not the slightest notion of how much is necessary, but I remember Mr. Bryan telling me the sum used in his campaign. I have forgotten the exact figures, but it certainly was under $1,000,000.

"My desire is to confine expenditures to a reasonable degree of economy and absolutely legitimate objects. I regret that it costs as much as it does to run a campaign."

Governor Wilson also amplified his views on organizations and political machines, which Frederick W. Heinrichs, once a candidate for lieutenant governor in New York, took issue with the governor on Saturday, drawing the governor's attention to Mr. Roosevelt's position on these questions.

"Organizations are absolutely necessary," said the governor, "and it is always right to discriminate between political machines and organizations. A machine is that small part of an organization used for wrong purposes, generally private and personal. It is not right to confuse organizations with the machine."

W. L. L. NOT DESERT REPUBLICAN PARTY

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 12.—Senator A. J. Gronna of North Dakota, who was here today, said he was going home to support the Republican ticket in the coming election, including the presidential election. Senator Gronna said that at a conference of progressive Republicans in Washington Saturday, in which Senators La Follette, Borah of Idaho, Kenyon of Iowa and others took part, the form of a statement was agreed upon, which was signed by La Follette, Borah and Kenyon, and which was to be presented to the Republican party and the third party movement.

"If I left the Republican party I should feel under obligation to resign my seat in the senate," he was elected by the Republican party and I am still a Republican."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Senator La Follette tonight declined to comment on the conference referred to by Senator Gronna, held in Washington last Saturday night, or discuss whether any agreement had been reached as to whether La Follette should refuse to leave the Republican party and join the third party movement.

urday night. It is hinted that he is to launch upon the tariff issue, going into it with greater detail than he attempted at Chicago.

The Massachusetts Progressives are out for a comparative tariff revision as opposed to the stand-pat attitude of the Lodge-Crane organization in the state. They want Roosevelt to differ with the moderate tariff utterance of the Republican platform. The solid manufacturing interests of the state, however, are opposed to the tariff. The Progressives want him to put it in. The colonel has assured his Bay state leaders that he will handle the tariff in a manner that will assure an uncompromising downward revision if he is elected.

Roosevelt will reiterate his advocacy of a non-partisan tariff commission to inquire into the cost of manufacture and will hold out for a revision that will be of advantage not only to the manufacturer, but to the wage earner.

The Progressives for the possible effect it may have upon the Vermont campaign toward the end of the month. The Vermont Progressives are to make a desperate fight to win in the state election, which comes in September. The result there, they believe, will reflect at least in part the attitude of the New England states toward the third party.

A fleet of Progressive orators, including the colonel, and Messrs. Johnson and Senator Dixon, will speak in Vermont before the election. If Roosevelt can carry the state, he feels that it will give a tremendous impetus to his campaign the country over.

The colonel departed himself today in leaving his horseback riding and playing tennis with his family. Political visitors shied at Sagamore Hill.

SPECIAL BUREAU TO DO THE EXPLAINING

By International News Service.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 12.—In an effort to effect the race and religious prejudices which have resulted from some of Governor Wilson's early writings, when he had no expectation of becoming a candidate for the presidency, the Democratic campaign managers will establish a bureau in New York, with a branch in Chicago, for the distribution of explanatory literature.

This will constitute the defensive part of the campaign, just as the tariff issue, which is a federal one, is the main issue. Thousands of letters have been received here from Democrats all over the country demanding that the governor explain his attitude toward immigrants from the south of Europe, to whom he has referred as "people of the baner and manner."

The religious question is easily explained. To all those who will inquire if the candidate has discriminated against Catholics, the governor's state appointments is mailed, showing the number of Catholics he has appointed to office. He has appointed no more than the number of Protestants, and he has appointed no more than the number of Protestants.

Another charge against the governor, that he has had widespread circulation in the New York press, is that he has appointed no more than the number of Protestants, and he has appointed no more than the number of Protestants.

It is intended to interest editors, ministers, church speakers, and the like, to make a list of the names of the governors of the various states, and to make a list of the names of the governors of the various states.

WILSON PROPOSES A BUDGET SCHEME

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 12.—Governor Woodrow Wilson expressed himself tonight in favor of a budget scheme to handle the business and finances of the United States government. With Representative Swager, of New York, he proposed to introduce a bill today on the possibility of adopting the budget system of financing the federal government.

"Mr. Swager and I," said the governor, "discussed a method of systematizing income and expenditure. It is a matter I have been thinking of since I was a young man. Things were different then, however. There was the committee on ways and means for supplies and the committee on appropriations to regulate expenditure."

"Nowadays we have the military committee taking care of the army appropriation, the navy committee taking care of the navy appropriation, and the agricultural committee taking care of the agricultural appropriation. It is a matter of the various items might be systematized and we never know how much is spent by congress until it adjourns."

The governor gave no further details of the plan suggested to him by Mr. Swager.

Major Childs and E. R. Ullery gave the governor what he termed "hopeful remarks" on the situation in Vermont.

It is known here, however, that the position of the governor is not as strong as it was considered at a conference in the senate chamber last Saturday. This conference was informal and it is understood that the governor is leaning in favor of remaining within the Republican party.

ROOSEVELT AT WORK UPON HIS SPEECHES

OSTYER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Instead of being in his New York office tomorrow as has been his custom on Tuesdays, Colonel Roosevelt intends to occupy himself at Sagamore Hill, working upon his speeches he is to deliver upon his New England tour at the end of the week.

At Providence on Friday the excitement of the relief of the confederates of faith he made at Chicago at his Bull Moose convention. It will differ in this particular only that the Providence effort will be brief by some 15,000 words.

The ex-president has in mind a different speech for the roundup of Massachusetts Progressives at Revere on Saturday night.

count of the two conventions in Chicago, but criticized various newspapers of this and other states that have opposed the third party movement.

The governor censured both of the old parties.

Third Ticket in Colorado.

DENVER, Aug. 12.—That there will be a complete state and county ticket in the third party in Colorado by the Progressive party, is the word brought from Chicago by E. P. Costigan, who attended the convention at New York last week, and who is nominee for governor on the Progressive ticket.

There will be no coalition with any branch of the Republican party which supports Taft electors.

Denver is to be one of five divisions in the official campaign of the Progressive party, according to Costigan, with Ben B. Liney in charge of the Denver headquarters. The other headquarters will be at New York, Chicago, San Francisco and a point in the southern states yet to be chosen.

Decision Postponed.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 12.—The Progressive state central committee postponed action again today on the calling of a state convention to name a third party ticket in Washington, because the delegates to the national convention had not arrived from Chicago and the third party ticket in Washington had not been decided.

The returning delegates are expected to arrive late tonight or early tomorrow and the committee will meet again tomorrow afternoon.

Abides by the Result.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 12.—Before leaving for Boise, Idaho, tonight to attend the Idaho primary election, Paul Clagstone, who, on the face of the returns, was defeated by eighteen votes by John M. Haine of Boise, the Republican nomination for governor, said:

"While a great many Progressives have suggested my name as a possible candidate for the governorship, I feel that I entered the race in the Republican primaries as a straight-out Progressive. I am not at all concerned with the result and I will abide by the result and under no circumstances will I accept the nomination for governor on a third party ticket."

Wells Optimistic.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Rolla Wells, former mayor of New York and treasurer of the Democratic national committee, arrived in New York today and said: "I am not worried about raising campaign funds. I believe that the Democratic party will give us all the funds necessary."

Women to Take Part.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 12.—Though the Democratic party has no plank in its platform advocating woman suffrage, a plan has been formulated by the Wilson campaign managers by which they hope to make a bid for the feminine vote of the six woman suffrage states.

Borden Harriman of New York is to have charge of the campaign among women voters in California, Washington, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado and Idaho. He will be assisted by the national committee and manager of the western headquarters at Chicago, had an appointment with Governor Wilson today to discuss the matter.

Without going into the suffrage question, Mrs. Harriman, according to present plans, will make an appeal to the women on the tariff and the cost of living, as well as legislation relating to hours of work and child labor.

Mr. Davis brought for the governor's approval abstracts made by Mrs. Harriman on the women's compensation question, and the women's committee, signed by Governor Wilson in New Jersey.

SCORES PRESIDENT FOR WOOL BALL VETO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—"A shining example of a good man going wrong," was the characterization of President Taft made by Senator Stone of Missouri in a speech in the senate today attacking the president's veto of the Democratic Progressive wool tariff bill.

"The president," said the senator, "is a high-class man. He is naturally good. I believe him to be a patriotic American devoted to the interests of his country and its people. I would follow the bent of his own inclination he would, I think, seek with singleness of purpose to promote the public welfare."

"But he is so environed with political exigencies, so bound by the interests to which his party is obligated, that he often allows himself to be overruled. Instead of leading, he too often allows himself to be led. He becomes the servant of the special interests instead of the people."

In short, he becomes the shining example of a good man going wrong."

Senator Stone said that the president had vetoed the wool tariff bill "because he is so environed with political exigencies, so bound by the interests to which his party is obligated, that he often allows himself to be overruled."

GIRL ELEVEN YEARS OLD CONFESSES ARSON

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 12.—Her eyes red from crying, Edna James, eleven years old, a purse girl, today admitted that she had started three fires in Springfield, Mo. She refuses to give any reason for her act.

Thirty-five fires occurred here Saturday in various homes. A guard was placed at the house where Edna worked and no more blazes occurred. Her arrest followed.

"Did you start the fires?" she was asked. "Just three," the girl replied. The police, however, believe Edna started all of the fires.

BELIEVE THEY HAVE MURDERER OF TEACHER

DENVER, Aug. 12.—In the arrest tonight of a negro named Edna Jones, 35 years old, the police believe they have the murderer of Miss Signe Carlsen, the music teacher who was brutally murdered Friday night in Aurora, a suburb.

When the place where he lives was searched an ax, the blade and handle covered with blood, was found. Blood stains were found also on the underclothing of the negro. Jones explains the bloody ax by declaring he killed a chicken Sunday, but unable to explain the spots on his underwear.

LET THE ROOPS DO THE FIGHT

Signal Corps Is Attached to the "Red" Army, While the Infantry and Battery Are With the "Blues."

GUARDSMEN ENJOY THE LIFE IN CAMP

Monotony Broken by Numerous Drills While the Invaders Are Waiting for Word From the Defenders.

SALINAS, Cal., Aug. 12.—While the "red" army of attack is in doubt as to the whereabouts of the main force of the "blue" defenders, the invaders suffered a set back today at the hands of the "blue" force that was driven toward San Francisco when the invaders landed Sunday at the Presidio Monterey. This afternoon the retreating force blew up a bridge a mile south of this city, and in consequence the invaders will be delayed for a number of hours.

The bridge was destroyed by a machine gun platoon of the Twelfth U. S. infantry. Five "red" sentries were captured without a fight, and the success of the attempt is considered a decided setback to the "reds," who previously seriously threatened the safety of the retreating force under Colonel Bowen.

It appears probable tonight that the "reds" will not leave camp until tomorrow morning, when another attempt will be made to capture the retreating "blues" who are making in the general direction of San Jose in the hope of being able to join the main body commanded by Colonel Gardner.

Company "A," Utah national guard signal corps, which is attached to the "red" army, has established signal stations in the field and is the means of communication for Brigadier General Robert Wankowski, N. G. C., who is in command.

Five companies of infantry and the battery of field artillery of the Utah militia have been assigned with the "blues" and are retreating northward with Colonel Bowen's command.

The militia men are standing camp life well and have been given numerous drills while the invaders are waiting for word from the defenders.

Brigadier General Walter Schuyler, supervising general of the national guard, is expected to arrive tonight in Salinas.

"BLUES" WERE KEPT ON JUMP ALL DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—The call to arms pulled 3000 men out of bed at the Presidio here today and through the city streets, ready with plenty of cartridges, rapidly enough to bring commendation from Colonel Cornelius Gardner, Sixteenth infantry, commander of the "blue" defending army in the Pacific coast war game.

With this beginning the "blues" kept on the jump all day, preparing to meet the "reds" who were expected to attack at any time. The "blues" were kept on the jump all day, preparing to meet the "reds" who were expected to attack at any time.

Through the day the infantry drilled and the California and regular signal corps detachments worked together under the command of Colonel Bell, who inspected the big ovens and bit off one of the 2000 loaves of bread baked daily for the troops. It was good bread, he said.

Field hospital and ambulance corps No. one of the army's newer organizations, went into camp for the first time, under Major E. E. Persons, in the shadow of the northern guard camp. This hospital is named after Dr. Jonathan Letterson, who, as medical director of the Army of the Potomac from 1862 to 1864, credited with revolutionizing the field medical practice, establishing the first ambulance corps used in any military organization and devising what is today the basis of the ambulance service of every army in the world.

The field hospital men have plenty to do in caring for the "blues" who are being treated for various ailments. A part of their organization is to divide in squads in rough country, one squad "planting" supposedly wounded men in the brush, while the other squad to find and treat these men. All cases of illness occurring in the field army are handled by this organization as a matter of routine.

DECLARES LETTERS WERE RELED IN P. O.

TUCSON, Ariz., Aug. 12.—Heavy fighting was in progress today between the Mexican federalists and the rebels at Ladara, Sonora, according to reports received here today from the city of Ladara. The fighting was reported to have begun immediately after the receipt of the news from their agents in the Mexican towns, the telegrams were cut. The report was to the effect that the rebels advanced and opened fire on the federalists just before noon.

A trainload of federal troops attempted to depart from Ladara today, but were prevented by the fact that two bridges which had spanned the Yaqui river had been burned and also by 1200 rebels who opened fire upon the government soldiers, causing them to retreat to the scene they had hoped to quit.

Two hundred rebels were reported at La Mesa, not far from Ladara. Governor May Toren of Sonora is with the federalists at Ladara.

CHARGED WITH GIVING HER HUSBAND POISON

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Mrs. Frieda Trost, proprietress of an uptown saloon, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of having caused the death of her husband, William Trost, within a week after her marriage to him by administering poison, was committed to prison today for her appearance tomorrow, when an inquest will be started.

Edmund Gunkle, bartender for Mrs. Trost, was also committed as a material witness.

Will Commute Sentence.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—President Taft has decided to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence of Mattie Lomax, a negro woman convicted of murdering her husband. She is said to have tuberculosis.

LAWYER URGES SAM SCHEPPS TO KEEP STILL

Man Accused of Complicity in Murder of Gambler Rosenthal Relapses Into Silence in Consequence.

AWAITS ARRIVAL OF NEW YORK OFFICERS

Wife of the Gangster Tells of Her Bitter Experience in Trying to Wean Him From the Gaming Table.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Aug. 12.—"Do not believe all you read in the newspapers about me. I have probably talked too much, but I have not said one-half of what has been printed," said Sam Schepps, held here for complicity in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, tonight.

The prisoner received a telegram today from his lawyer in New York urging him to maintain silence.

The message apparently has had its effect and he has had little to say. No formal charge hangs over Schepps in Arkansas. He submitted to arrest and detention on information of officers who represented to him that they must hold him for the New York authorities. Yesterday the prisoner said he would tell his entire story to District Attorney Whitman.

But that was yesterday. Today was one of impatient waiting and it is apparent Schepps fears the New York police officials may be on the scene before representatives of the district attorney. That Schepps does not want to be turned over to the New York police authorities is evident.

Acting Mayor Pettit has received a message from District Attorney Whitman of New York stating that the latter's officers will arrive here Tuesday. Sche
